

THE VIENNA YEARBOOK OF POPULATION RESEARCH
JOINS JSTOR!

The Austrian Academy Sciences Press is pleased to announce that the entire back run of The Vienna Yearbook of Population Research will soon be accessible online through JSTOR, the not-for-profit digital archive.

Users at institutions that participate in JSTOR's Arts & Sciences X Collection are able to browse, search, download, and print the full-text PDF versions of all past articles from the first issue up until the most recent year of publication including "Demographische Informationen".

JSTOR is a not-for-profit service that helps scholars, researchers, and students discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content in a trusted digital archive of over one thousand academic journals and other scholarly content.
