

EUROPARC Conference 2019, in Kemer National Park, Latvia, 24– 27 September 2019

The EUROPARC Conference 2019 is the key event of the year for those working in Europe's Protected Areas. The EUROPARC Conference will take place from 24–27 September in Kemer National Park, Latvia. Entitled "Nature on your mind – understanding our values", the conference will focus on the role of nature in human health. Conference delegates will be inspired by international experts presenting nature at the core of their businesses and projects.

For more information, see <https://www.europarc.org/europarc-conference/>

International Mountain Conference, Innsbruck, Austria, 08–12 September 2019

The IMC 2019 aims to encourage in-depth cross-disciplinary discussions towards a new understanding of mountain systems, their responses and resiliencies. It aims to build upon the three previous mountain conferences that took place in Perth, Scotland, continuing this special scientific conference series with a focus on mountain-specific topics. Hosted in the Alps, the IMC 2019 will provide an excellent opportunity for experts from different disciplines to come together and discuss mountain-related issues.

For more information, see <https://www.uibk.ac.at/congress/imc2019/index.html.en>

Sondrio Festival 2019 – International Documentary Film Festival on Parks (33rd edition) in Sondrio, Italy, 11–24 November 2019

Sondrio Festival is a unique international film festival, mainly dedicated to nature films, of high scientific and cinematographic level, made in nature parks and protected areas worldwide. The works presented in the competition are selected from the best productions worldwide: among the past festivals winners are film-makers from all over the world and famous personalities in the field of nature documentary.

For more information, see <http://www.sondriofestival.it/en/festival>

Parks discussed in this issue

Abbreviations: BR – Biosphere Reserve; p. – page

